This bright and airy family home is located in a private, quiet and highly sought after neighbourhood with only a short drive to Coffs Harbour's CBD and pristine swimming and surfing beaches. This property is not to be missed! This home boasts a large open plan living and dining area that joins to the modern and functional kitchen, perfect for family living. A sliding door brings living outside with the undercover patio and fenced, low maintenance yard. The master bedroom has a relaxing feel with its own walk in robe, en-suite with double, waterfall shower heads and its own sliding door to the outside area. The other two good sized bedrooms have built in robes and ceiling fans, with a fourth room that could be used as another bedroom or media room. The large main bathroom has both shower and tub and separate toilet. Other features of this property include a double lock up garage with internal access and laundry located in the garage. Pets are considered upon application. Enquire today to secure your spot to view this property!
