For those contemplating a relocation to the Southern Highlands and seeking to experience the area firsthand, or for those in need of a new residence, an ideal opportunity awaits. This stone-built abode presents spacious living spaces and encompassing verandas overlooking lush surroundings, allowing for moments of relaxation while observing the mist descending over the hills in winter, accompanied by the comforting crackle of an open fire. Featuring four generously sized bedrooms equipped with built-in wardrobes, a sprawling main living area, and a combined kitchen, dining, and sunroom, this home caters to comfort and functionality. Additionally, it includes a detached double garage and a sizable chicken coop. Conveniently located near Burrawang village, this dwelling embodies the perks of rural living, complete with a vegetable garden for those inclined to cultivate their own harvest. Come winter, the expansive open fireplace offers warmth and ambiance, while in summer, French doors can be thrown open to welcome in a gentle cross-breeze.
