Rod and Theresa from Ray White Nolan & Iken are pleased to present: This is the home you have been looking for. Step inside and fall in love with 6 Gemini Street, Riverstone. The living space offers a study/lounge, open plan family and meals area, and are all perfectly accented by floorboards and blinds throughout. The kitchen is decked out with stone benchtops, a central island with waterfall edge and breakfast bar, 900mm gas cooktop and oven, dishwasher, soft-close doors and drawers, and walk-in pantry. Sleeping accommodation consists of four generous bedrooms, all with built-in wardrobes. The family bathroom has everything you need to get the kids ready on busy mornings. The main bedroom is an oasis for mum and dad, and provides access to a walk-in wardrobe and private ensuite. If you are an outdoors kind of person, you can enjoy your backyard from the coolness of your tiled alfresco area. If you are a lover of clean energy, you will be excited to know that the home offers solar panels for you to enjoy, and if you are a lover of comfort, the split system air conditioning will be the cherry on top. The family car can have its own cozy space in the single automated garage, with internal access. For our investors the home offers rental potential of approximately $730 - $750 per week. Location highlights include Riverstone station, access to local buses, Carmel Village for shopping, and Riverstone swimming centre for recreation.
