A home that achieves benchmark luxury levels throughout a design of dream dimensions, this unforgettable modern property creates a curated world of its own - yet step outside and you're simply moments from Nelson Place, Point Gellibrand Coastal Heritage Park, the water and Williamstown station. The façade is the first indication that something special awaits. That expectation is more than met by ground level living and dining areas accompanied by a stunning open-plan kitchen and double glazed bi-fold doors that essentially eliminate any divide between interior spaces and elegant decking against a beautiful bamboo backdrop. Three upstairs bedrooms, two with terraces, all with 100% block out blinds, including an alluring main bedroom with a seductive ensuite, are served by two further bathrooms, one downstairs, both designed to leave a lasting impression. The brilliance extends to the basement, where a cinema room makes movie nights memorable in an address that reveals its appeal in every detail. A secure garage is the perfect final touch.
