Ray White Benalla welcomes you to 6 Jean Crescent, Benalla. A stunning home is one of kind in its location, situated on 732sqm within close proximity to the CBD, schools, supermarkets and the train station. Inside the home we have open plan kitchen/dining area, flowing seamlessly into the lounge that opens up onto the outdoor entertainment space. The beautiful renovated and modern kitchen is fit with ample storage, dishwasher, 900ml oven & cooktop, double sink, island bench, large fridge space, corner in built pantry and wood flooring that flows through the home. The living room is a large area with big windows that allow for plenty of light, heating and cooling vents as well as the double doors that open onto your outdoor entertainment area. The home has three bedrooms with the larger room being the master at the front of the home with large built in robe and the additional two also with built in robes, heating and cooling vents as well as ceiling fans. A main central bathroom with a large bath, vanity and open shower, toilet is separate space just next to the bathroom. A great size laundry with access to outside the home and a great size linen press. The outdoor entertainment space is a great decked area with ceiling fan to ensure comfort in the warmer months, opening onto the great yard space for the kids to enjoy and plenty of room to add your additions if necessary. A large shed is also located at the rear of the home with roller car door access, this shed is powered with concrete floor. Contact Ray White Benalla today to book your inspection!
