Experience coastal living at its finest in this beautifully renovated two-storey home. Perfectly blending modern convenience with coastal charm, this property is an ideal retreat for families and vacationers alike. This stunning home features four spacious bedrooms, providing ample space for family and guests. Upstairs you will find high ceilings that make a light and open kitchen dining and lounge area with a second sitting area located down stairs. There are two bathrooms, with the main bathroom being recently renovated located upstairs and a second bathroom conveniently situated downstairs. The fantastic undercover decking area, complete with an in-built kitchen, is perfect for entertaining and enjoying outdoor meals. The property boasts a great yard with side access, ideal for children to play or for gardening enthusiasts. Additional outdoor features include a firepit and shower, enhancing the outdoor living experience. Parking is plentiful with two single car garages, single undercover parking, and additional open parking spaces suitable for cars, boats, or caravans. Located close to the beach and the Marlin Road stairs and walking track, this home offers easy access to coastal recreation. It is also near The Lake Tyers Beach Tavern & The General Café, providing excellent dining options. Nature enthusiasts will appreciate the numerous walking tracks around Lake Tyers Beach. For added convenience, all the amenities of Lakes Entrance are just a 10-minute drive away. This property is a current guest favourite and a popular Airbnb destination, receiving rave reviews. Guests have praised the spotless and organized condition of the home, noting the thoughtful touches throughout and the great deck for family time. They also highlighted the beautiful, immaculately clean, and tastefully decorated accommodation that exceeded all expectations, with an open layout that seamlessly blends indoor and outdoor living. See below reviews • Great host and an amazing property. Actually was even better than it looked on the photos. Spotless, organised, had everything we needed and there were thoughtful touches all around the house. Great deck for spending time with family. • Surfmist is a beautiful home, my family and I really enjoyed staying at this place. The accommodation itself exceeded all expectations. Immaculately clean and tastefully decorated, every corner exuded a sense of comfort and relaxation. The open layout seamlessly blends indoor and outdoor living, allowing us to soak in the views of the surrounding nature. We cannot wait to return for another unforgettable stay. Highly recommend!
