Modern Sophistication on 1 Acre

A stunning blend of style and appointment, this bespoke residence has been crafted to work in harmony with its environment. Split over three levels the cutting-edge design offers the combination of light and space, perfectly balancing form, and function.

Bright airy spaces define the home, from the expansive open plan living room to the intimate lounge, complemented by Tasmanian oak floors, feature windows, each space allows for families to gather or retreat. A subtle colour palette enhances their appeal. Central to the residence is the sleek stone kitchen with Smeg appliances and butler's pantry. The integrated design allows one, to work and mingle at the same time.

Comprising of four bedrooms the principal bedroom on the second level is a serene sanctuary, complete with fitted dressing robe, the ensuite of generous proportions. The remaining three bedrooms feature built in robes with glazed views to the garden, all serviced via a family bathroom. The private study, ideal for those working from home. Step out to a covered entertaining terrace with deck and kitchen that overlooks a seated fire pit, encompassed by neatly clipped rolling lawns, the perfect platform to entertain year-round.

Thoughtfully planned the triple car garage/ workshop is contained under the roofline. Additional parking bays are available for storage of trailers and alike.

The rolling acre provides ample space to add a swimming pool or additional shedding if desired.

Beautifully situated in one of Bunyip's finest enclaves this property offers the charm of semi-rural living while being close to the village.
