Spacious and Stylish Family Entertainer

An achievement in sublime proportion, refined finish, and careful attention to detail, this contemporary coastal residence as is brilliantly versatile as it is effortlessly functional for a modern family lifestyle.

A grand double door welcomes into a wide entrance hall set beneath three-metre-high ceilings, setting the tone for the flowing interiors beyond, where the home's single level design ensures a high-quality coastal living experience.

Timber-look flooring, plantation shutters, and lashings of natural light lend a sophisticated yet decidedly carefree appeal as the layout extends past a formal lounge, set beneath a high raked ceiling and warmed by the soothing glow of a gas log fire.

The thriving heart of the home is the stone-topped island kitchen where a full suite of stainless-steel appliances including twin ovens cater to the most discerning home chef, as a fitted butler's pantry enriches the functional appeal.

Entertaining is a delight in the adjoining open plan living and dining area, which harnesses a relaxed ambience with its gas log fireplace and multiple sets of sliding glass doors that flow onto the spacious alfresco deck, set amidst a privately screened rear yard with grassed space for the kids to play freely.

An oversized main bedroom will delight with its twin walk-in robes and sumptuous double-vanity ensuite featuring textural full height tiling, stone benchtops, and deluxe freestanding tub. A rear wing accommodates three additional bedrooms and fully tiled family bathroom, affording everyone their own space around a rumpus room or home office. Meanwhile a theatre room or fifth bedroom provides the flexibility that modern families desire.

Equipped with a list of inclusions headlined by superior sound and thermal insulation via Hebel construction, double glazed windows, plus ducted gas heating and evaporative cooling, the home is wonderfully positioned within a peaceful, family-friendly setting, with stunning beaches, vibrant cafes, local boutiques, and award-winning wineries and restaurants just minutes away.
