Displaying an abundance of possibilities, and with impressive space, this home holds strong appeal for first home buyers and families willing to put finishing touches on this 210m² residence. The three bedroom, two bathroom layout offers a family room with open plan kitchen/dining and separate office or play area plus additional spacious lounge. The hub of the home opens to a sunny undercover deck, the gardens are waiting for some new landscaping but well fenced with good access. The main bedroom is privately zoned and features a new ensuite, WIR and has additional built in robes. The additional bedrooms both have built-in robes, while the main bathroom has separate bath and shower, off set from a designated laundry. Reverse cycle a/c and cooling is installed for comfort, and ample storage is evident through the home. The floor plan has a well thought through layout. The double garage with internal access is inviting while ample off street parking on the left hand drive way are a great option for trailers, boats or camper vans. A desirable entry level opportunity to add your own taste and to complete the existing updates. We invite you to call today to discuss this opportunity.
