Quintessential Newstead Home

Located in an elevated position in a quiet street, this quintessential classic 1960's brick Newstead home boasts an exceptional outlook with great views to the northeast.

The spacious and welcoming front verandah provides a nice introduction to the home and stepping inside you will immediately feel at home.

The property has benefited from substantial upgrades in recent years with a major drawcard of double-glazed windows throughout the home, a modernised kitchen an excellent bathroom and plantation shutters throughout the living dining, and sunroom that elevates the quality feel of the home.

There are 3 generously sized bedrooms all with built-ins and downstairs you will find a bonus room with access to the garage that would be great for a multitude of uses.

A sunny light-filled sunroom with a glass atrium ceiling provides a serene spot for relaxing and is the perfect space for taking in the views. A sandstone fireplace in the living room provides a nice touch.

Outside, the north facing back yard is secure, sunny and low maintenance and includes a pergola (with brand new laser light) and a garden shed.
