

60 Shaftesbury Parade, Thornbury, VIC, 3071

McGrath

Sold House

Saturday, 17 August 2024

60 Shaftesbury Parade, Thornbury, VIC, 3071

Bedrooms: 5

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 6

Type: House

Anthony De Iesi

0394899422

Refined Craftsmanship in Coveted Location

A sophisticated interpretation of classic European grandeur and elegance, this spectacular architect designed residence surpasses every expectation in terms of luxury, scale and design.

Located in Thornbury's most desirable location within walking distance to all forms of transport and known for its preservation of single family homes of incredible character and diversity, rarely does an opportunity like this present itself. With breathtaking interior dimensions this 5 bedroom property has been built on an absolutely generous allotment perfectly positioned and ready for any future expansion. An uncompromising level of finish throughout includes Bespoke Joinery, Hand Crafted Timber Finishes, Solid Oak floors and quality fixtures and fittings of the highest order. Creating an unforgettable first impression, solid timber entry doors welcome you beneath a stunning French glass skylight and sweeping wrought iron staircase with a French Polished Handrail evokes a sense of occasion as it flows through to the generous and palatial living room with a spectacular handcrafted vaulted ceiling.

A magnificent north facing open plan living and dining room features a high end gas log fire and deluxe premium kitchen appointed with top end appliances, stone benches and integrated fridge/freezer. Double doors open out to an entertainers alfresco, overlooking a private sun-lit garden with laneway access for additional onsite parking. The second level features a generous retreat with glorious city glimpses which seamlessly flows into an opulent main bedroom with generous built in robes and a lavish ensuite. The three additional over-sized bedrooms are all appointed with built in robes.

The 2 car garage is complimented with additional four carspaces conveniently positioned behind the private solid brick fence and secured by automatic wrought iron gates. Additional parking is provided at the rear of the property. Nothing has been overlooked to create a home that is as beautiful as it is effortlessly functional for modern family living. Comprehensively appointed with stylish powder-room, laundry with ample cupboard and storage, monitored alarm, video surveillance, video intercom, dual ducted heating and cooling, ducted vacuum, three phase power and remote gates.