Fixer-Upper on Nearly an Acre!

If you're looking for a project with potential, this is the one for you! This brick home may need some TLC, but it's brimming with possibilities. Nestled on nearly an acre of land, surrounded by beautiful trees, this property offers the perfect canvas to create your dream home.

The location is a dream for nature lovers, with the back boundary bordering the Commission Channel a fantastic spot for fishing enthusiasts! With town water connected, septic sewer, and power available, all the essentials are in place. All that's missing is your vision to bring this charming fixer-upper to life.

Don't miss this opportunity to turn a blank slate into something truly special. Embrace the challenge and make this home your own!
