This superb residence reflects the commitment of its creators and delivers a future-proof property that makes a positive contribution to the life, and lifestyle of those who own and occupy it. From first glimpse to final detail, it is apparent that this architect designed residence is inspired living.

Bathed in natural light, the expansive open plan design offers astutely defined living spaces which seamlessly connect to the outdoor entertaining area, large rear yard, and pool. Quality is palpable, emphasized by bespoke designer lighting, custom joinery, sleek curved finishes, and oak flooring. For ease of living and ultimate flexibility, the design incorporates wider passages, double height voids, and windows positioned for optimal visibility and breezes. Connoisseurs will delight in the spacious kitchen that overlooks the living, dining, and outside area. It comes complete with a full suite of Miele appliances including double ovens and induction cooktop. Sleek white cabinetry surrounds the space and offers plenty of smart storage options including a butler's pantry. This culinary zone is a pleasure not only to cook, but to socialise in. A full width cavity sliding glass door opens and effortlessly transitions to the alfresco area, complete with a built-in Weber barbeque and bar fridge. Spend your weekends relaxing out here in complete privacy, hosting exclusive soirées with friends and family, or floating the weekends away in the pool.

Accommodation comprises five generous sized bedrooms including an exclusive parents' suite with sizable walk-in robe, impressive ensuite, and private balcony. The additional bedrooms upstairs surround a second living area, ensuring family harmony, and share a central bathroom. A fifth bedroom on the lower level is serviced by a third bathroom.
