Entertainers delight with double garage and room boat or van

With a focus on entertaining this Filippi built home, offers good accommodation and light and bright northerly aspect. The central entry opens to the right with lounge/sitting room and through to 3 bedrooms, master with ensuite and walk in robe and family bathroom with bath, shower & vanity. The kitchen is the hub of the home with excellent bench space and storage with a large pantry and opens to dining space and family living zone, all flowing out to the huge undercover entertaining and fernery/garden area. The remote double garage has internal access. There's ducted heating and cooling throughout. One of the most sought features is double gate side access to the yard with room for a boat, van or even a shed (STCA) and the lot size is 664m². This home offers a great entry to the ever popular St Albans Park market with first home buyers, investors and downsizers loving all the area has to offer. Call today for more information.
