Superbly designed and lovingly maintained by its original owners, this pristine three bedroom two bathroom home proves an enthusiasts dream. Set opposite parklands with soaring windows capturing views of the green, this time capsule home with its raked ceilings, exposed brick and timber details is a fabulous example of the streamlined interiors of this singular style. From a charismatic reception room where a bar and open fireplace invite you relax and discuss the days events, to an open plan living and dining domain that spills to alfresco gardens, plus a gourmet Smeg/Miele appointed solid timber kitchen, this singular home offers plenty of space for growing families to live, work and play in an inspired setting. The master bedroom sits behind a feature timber wall and is complemented by an ensuite, while a further two bedrooms with BIRs and a desk share a spotless modern bathroom and two further powder rooms. With clerestory windows that light up the kitchen and a stylish laundry, class continues with hydronic heating, split system air-conditioners, ceiling fans, garage plus off-street parking. All in a modern setting surrounded by parklands, near Sydney Road shopping and trains, local restaurants and well-regarded schools, zoned to Coburg High.
