Freshly updated with crisp white paintwork and engineered oak floors, this is a modern refresh that's light and bright. In numerology number 66 is a symbol of harmony, in feng shui it represents good fortune – so the house number here promises favourable family living. Behind a high brick wall, the home enjoys absolute privacy with a sweeping verandah as its entrance. Inside, beautiful new finishes enhance the light and airy feel with neutral oak flooring carrying you across abundant living space. The single level design offers the character of a raised dining room just across from the north-east facing living room, setting up its bedrooms along the hallway for quiet retreat. Elegant French windows and polished porcelain tiling in the ensuite add to the appeal, with quality s/s appliances in the kitchen and a side deck giving you glimpses of the mountains. For busy working families, the garden has been landscaped for low maintenance freedom with synthetic turf and paving, also suited for playing sport. The property's parkland position puts you close to Dandenong Creek Trail and the wetlands, Wheelers Hill Shopping Centre, a choice of both public and private schools including Caulfield Grammar, with Eastlink fast tracking you to the CBD and the peninsula.
