Welcome to 6678 Channel Highway, Deep Bay - a stunning property that blends modern comfort with thoughtful design. This exceptional home was built in 2022 and is situated on a generous 668m² block and offers a lifestyle of convenience and comfort. This beautiful home features three spacious bedrooms, each designed for comfort and bathed in natural light, creating a serene atmosphere. The two modern bathrooms are a highlight, featuring a luxurious free-standing bath, separate shower and tiling throughout, all perfect for relaxation. The functional laundry, with tiled flooring and direct access to the outside, combines practicality with style. The kitchen is equipped with sleek appliances, featuring a stone bench top, breakfast bar, sink, and integrated dishwasher offering functionality and style. The generously sized walk in pantry offers plenty of storage and practicality. The open-plan living and dining areas seamlessly connect to the kitchen, creating a perfect space for family gatherings and entertaining. Double glazing throughout the home ensures energy efficiency and comfort all year round. Climate control is well managed with a heat pump, keeping you cozy in winter and cool in summer. The outdoor space is designed for effortless maintenance, featuring a front deck perfect for relaxation and enjoyment. Don't miss this opportunity to own a beautifully designed home in the sought-after area of Deep Bay. Just 8 minutes from the vibrant artistic township of Cygnet where many galleries, cafes, and community groups make the well renowned village a sought after destination, along with being just under an hour's drive to Hobart, this could be your new place of residence, your holiday home or your investment property in a popular location.
