Beautifully renovated blending contemporary style and vintage appeal

Auction Location: In Room

There are some properties that just embrace you with warmth the moment you step inside, and 67 Henry Street is one of those treasures. Coming home here is pure joy, with its perfect blend of period charm and modern updates. Beautifully renovated from the white picket fence and new front verandah to the new alfresco entertaining deck and fresh laundry, this cottage is a delightful mix of old and new. Plus, there's a restored vintage caravan in the backyard, ideal as a home office or a cool kids' retreat.

As you enter, you'll notice the spacious feel right away. The central hallway leads to three generously sized bedrooms, all filled with natural light, and the master comes with a chic ensuite. The open living area is flooded with light, featuring a designer kitchen and a stunning family bathroom that combines vintage flair with modern touches, like a claw foot bath and trendy subway tiles. Huge windows and doors fill the space with a breezy brightness, seamlessly extending to the alfresco entertaining area and private landscaped backyard.

Living here means becoming part of a vibrant community where neighbours quickly turn into friends. Just around the corner, you can grab your morning coffee at Praise Joe or wander to Equium Social. Nearby Islington Park is perfect for a run with the kids and dog, or you can hop on the Throsby path for a bike ride to Honeysuckle or even all the way to Nobbys Beach.
