

68 Stawell St, Richmond, VIC, 3121

Sold House

Saturday, 19 October 2024

68 Stawell St, Richmond, VIC, 3121

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 2

Parkings: 1

Type: House

Evocative Victorian, steps to Bridge & Swan

Expressions of Interest Closing on Monday 5th August at 5pm

A superlative blend of classic and contemporary, this exquisite residence affords the quintessential Richmond lifestyle among the suburb's esteemed river district. Luxury adornments ideal complements to old world details, a sumptuous interior lies beyond a captivating façade, with three sizeable bedrooms accompanied by walk in/built in robes, a lavish central bathroom, and master ensuite. With dark pine floors stylishly contrasted by white walls and pressed metal dado panelling, a quiet lounge doubles as a superb home workspace, while a substantial main section centres around a gourmet, granite top kitchen with upmarket Smeg appliances. Brilliant bifolds serve to streamline indoor outdoor flow, with a shaded backyard perfect for warm weather gatherings with friends. An executive standout promoting upscale luxury and period elegance, highlights include heating/cooling, CCTV, travertine to bathrooms, a video intercom, alarm, fireplace to lounge, large laundry, and driveway space. Steps from the culinary and afterhours scenes of Swan Street, Burnley Street, Bridge Road, and surrounds, it's within metres of trains and trams, acclaimed schools, Burnley Park, and the Yarra Trail.