Situated between Lewis and Hamilton Streets and built in 1986 this low maintenance original brick home sits on a flat block and features a single car garage and convenient proximity to shops and schools. The home has a colorbond roof and aluminium windows throughout. Inside, there are two bedrooms, each equipped with spacious built-in wardrobes. The main bedroom includes an ensuite bathroom and the main bathroom offers a separate shower, bath, and the toilet is also separate. A large archway connects the living area to the kitchen and dining spaces, enhancing the flow of the home. The kitchen features ample storage, including a large pantry and an island bench. Outside, you will find a single car garage that can double as a workshop. The flat block is adorned with mature trees and offers plenty of garden space. The yard is secure, enclosed by Colorbond fencing all around with a gated and sealed driveway for added security and convenience.*The information contained herein has been supplied to us by sources which are considered reliable and we have no reason to doubt its accuracy.
