A PIECE OF PARADISE

This property sounds like a hidden gem with a lot of potential! The spacious lowset timber home, combined with the picturesque 1.53 acres and additional features like the sheds and second dwelling made from shipping containers, offer plenty of possibilities. With the option for dual rental income from both the main house and the container accommodation, it provides flexibility for investors or those looking for additional income streams.

The ample water storage options with tanks and a bore, along with the large inground concrete tank, are great assets, especially in areas where water availability can be a concern. And the fully fenced acreage adds a layer of privacy and security.

The location, approximately 30km north of Gympie, offers a balance of rural tranquility and accessibility to amenities in town. It seems like a property that could appeal to a range of buyers, from those seeking a peaceful rural lifestyle to savvy investors looking to capitalize on rental opportunities.
