An incredibly rare and desirable opportunity, this is your chance to secure the home you've always dreamt of, in an equally wonderful position. We urge genuine buyers who have been painstakingly seeking an idyllic family home in a blue-chip location, to inspect this beautifully appointed residence without delay. Meticulously presented and recently renovated by its current owners, it offers the most outstanding opportunity to secure a brilliant family home, in one of the most desirable and picturesque positions we have seen. Located in a prestige, elevated position in the highly popular Chermide West, the home is just metres to gorgeous parkland, bush reserve and dog off leash areas and walking tracks. An easy walk to City Express bus, a selection of well-regarded schools and private school bus routes, just moments to Westfield Chermide and multiple shopping options and hospitals, and surrounded by other quality homes and lovely neighbours – this really is lifestyle perfection! Beautifully appointed and with an exceptionally spacious floorplan, the home presents as a quality home with generous proportions, and will appeal to astute singles, couples and families in equal measure. Ticking all of the crucial boxes, your prompt inspection is strongly encouraged here... Features you will love –

- Solid and well built double storey brick and tile home with rare and desirable legal height downstairs
- A highly desirable north/south aspect
- An effortless and spacious floorplan that extends across two brilliant levels
