Welcome to 7 Little Jane Street. This Federation Period house is one of the last remaining homes in the centre of West end. Sitting on a large 430m², fully fenced block, it has plenty of room in the yard to enjoy, as well as two off-street car spaces. Three spacious bedrooms including the master with an Ensuite. The master and second bedrooms have freestanding wardrobes with hanging space and drawers. Use the third bedroom as intended or it would make a perfect study / workspace with air conditioning and a built-in wall to wall desk, opening out onto the rear balcony. The kitchen has an island benchtop, stainless steel gas cooking and dishwasher, overlooking the backyard. The living room opens up to the front balcony and has more than enough room for the biggest couch Ikea sells! The house has been lifted, with enough height to walk around under and almost fully concreted to ensure useable storage end to end. Other features include-Timber floors throughout-Enclosed under-house laundry-Small but fruiting lime, kumquat & lemonade fruit trees-Dual Street frontage (Little Jane Street and Wilson Street)Very easily walk to everything West End has to offer-150m to Cafés and Bars-200m to Coles, the West End Night Markets and 400m to The Davis park Markets-1km walk to Southbank and the CBD Located in the heart of West End with a large backyard, 3 bedrooms and two off-street car spaces. What more could you ask for?
