This long held and loved family shack has seen countless happy memories created over the years and now its your turn to make your own memories. Set on a huge block of 1,377 square metres including a 28 metre absolute water frontage. This shack will cater for the biggest of family weekends with 2 living spaces, big dining area and 2 kitchens. The main kitchen features plenty of bench space and electric oven, the second kitchen includes a dining area and both have the wood stoves perfect for warmth and that old school charm. There is 5 bedrooms / sleeping areas capable of accommodating 12 to 14 people, a well appointed bathroom and second shower in the laundry plus several air conditioners throughout. Outside feature full length rear and front verandas, perfect for that BBQ while taking in the magnificent views of Spencer Gulf and the Flinders Ranges. Other features include carport, good shedding and plenty of rain water storage. Water front holidays homes are fast becoming out of reach but this is an opportunity to buy in at a very reasonable price and get started on those memories the kids will never forget.
