This four-bedroom Victorian residence offers comfort and convenience. Imagine living in a location with a café, pub, park, primary school, childcare centre and deli on your own street. Set in a quiet residential area near the epicures of Smith, Gertrude, Brunswick, and Johnston St. The accommodation is spread over two luxury levels, allowing for generous living for professionals, families, or downsizers seeking a modern inner-city residence. This home boasts European appliances and personalised touches, with 4 bedrooms, 2 bathrooms (including a large upstairs master bedroom retreat with ensuite and walk in wardrobe). Open plan living looking out onto a fully landscaped and low maintenance rear garden. Off street parking completes this amazing inner-city home for the truly discerning buyer.
