TIMELESS BEAUTY FOR A FABULOUS FUTURE

A sought-after Richmond address is just the beginning when it comes to the enormous appeal of this elevated Victorian terrace. Filled with abundant natural light, it is a home that is ready to be enjoyed, while dishing up tantalising scope for some modern, personalised touches should you choose to do so down the track.

- Commanding attention thanks to its classic façade, the single-fronted, elevated home opens with two street frontages boasts spacious interiors highlighted by timeless period features such as high ceilings, feature fireplaces, hardwood floors and deep architraves.
- At the front of the home, discover two large and carpeted bedrooms with ornate fireplaces – one of the rooms also benefits from built-in storage.
- Further on, entertainers will love the seamless indoor-outdoor flow of the living/dining zone which extends out to a versatile rear courtyard via a glorious arched window and door and off street car space.
- Quality stainless steel appliances are highlights of the contemporary kitchen, which also includes lots of cupboard space as well as a handy breakfast bar for relaxed meals with loved ones.
- A bright bathroom/laundry services the home, while also offered are split system heating/cooling, extensive storage – including a third bedroom / study plus under-house storage – and secure roller door access/parking via Freeman Street to the rear of the property.

In a neighbourhood that appeals to professionals, families and lifestyle buyers in equal measure, the home is close to Richmond West and Abbotsford primary schools, Richmond High School, trains, trams, shops and cafes – it is also within minutes of the CBD.
