It does not matter if you are a first home buyer, investor or in the market with a budget, this well-presented property will surely grab your attention. This highset home is located in one of the most popular suburbs and is within walking distance to Blackheath and Thornburgh College, recreational facilities and parklands. Spacious lounge featuring cool air-conditioning and new flooring leads through to the sunlit and functional kitchen and dining areas. Four carpeted and air-conditioned bedrooms, main bedroom with sizable built-in robes to one end, an extra room to the front of the home would be a great study or home office. Recently renovated bathroom features separate shower recess and corner bath creating a fresh modern feel. Outdoor living has also been accommodated with a great rear covered deck that overlooks the rear yard. Under the home offers a great laundry space and car accommodation. Established fully fenced, low maintenance yard on 573sqm corner allotment.
