Solid, spacious and a great contender for a modern makeover, 72 Pacific Highway, Jewells is an outstanding opportunity for buyers seeking an affordable lifestyle purchase or a renovator searching for a home with excellent bones awaiting easy transformation. Largely original, it's configured as a three bedroom dwelling with connected living and dining rooms, a large-scale family room, and a vintage kitchen and bathroom. There are a few nice surprises too, with polished timber floorboards, split-system AC, some ornate plasterwork on ceilings and sliding French doors. A rear studio with bathroom adds extra flexibility to the property, as does a lock-up garage, a rear shed, under-house storage, a chicken coop, and a covered outdoor entertaining area. Located within 1km of Jewell's tavern and shopping centre, 1200m from Bennett's Green Super Stores, and 5km from the surf of Redhead Beach or the calm shoreline of Lake Macquarie, the lifestyle rewards also speak volumes. - Largely original home, vintage in style and boasting generous room sizes - Readymade comfort, the home is perfectly functional as it is - Lounge, dining and family rooms offer great versatility - the family room is huge - Two of the three bedrooms include a built-in wardrobe - Generously scaled backyard waiting for your future pursuits or projects - Ready for your injection of statement style and personality - Located in a pocket central to shopping, dining, the coast and the lake- Zoned for Jewells Primary School (1500m) and Belmont High School (3.9km)
