New to the market in the very popular suburb of Sidmouth is this stunning property overlooking the Tamar River. The property itself is large in size with an enormous living space, taking great advantage of the stunning river view. The home has heaps of garage space with an enormous external garage that can host heaps of cars for several projects and a garage space under the house also. The property also has plenty of solar panels on the roof which is a great saving on your power bill every year, and the house gets heaps of sun being on the western side of the Tamar region, where the bulk of the vineyards are. The deck at the front of the property would be a great place to host guests and you can have a barbecue as you watch the sunsets that the region is famous for.
