An impressive 2 storey residence located on a wide tree-lined street in a sought after city fringe suburb. Designed for the modern family with large open plan spaces and a well thought out floorplan. With easy access to the front entrance is the lounge room, bedroom 4 and the downstairs bathroom creating a somewhat private haven from the rear of the home, ideal for those consulting from home or seeking separation. The sleek white kitchen has Miele cooking appliances and an enormous walk-through pantry with access to the double drive through garage. Overlooking the large family/meals area is the island bench, a casual place to share a meal. Sliding doors seamlessly open out to the Eco deck and outdoor kitchen. The warmth of rich timber flooring features throughout the upstairs living room, study and bedrooms. An enormous master suite with his and hers walk-in robes and ensuite enjoys access to a private balcony and adjacent study. Separating bedrooms 2 and 3 from the master bedroom is the spacious secondary living area and family bathroom. An expansive rear garden with pizza oven and heated tiled swimming pool makes this the ideal entertainer and family home. Located minutes to Adelaide CBD, the River Torrens Linear Park trail, The Parade, Walkerville shopping precinct and North Adelaide's abundance of shopping and gourmet restaurants. Zoned to Walkerville and East Adelaide Primary Schools and Marryatville High School and within close proximity to leading private schools including St Peter's College, Prince Alfred College and Wilderness School.
