

771 Jackson Road, Narrikup, WA 6326

House For Sale

Monday, 8 July 2024

771 Jackson Road, Narrikup, WA 6326

Bedrooms: 3

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 2

Area: 8 m2

Type: House

Linda Knight

0409126554

Offers Above $999,000

Imagine a lifestyle where you could enjoy starlit nights and enviable serenity, seclusion and country vistas, and still only be 25-kilometres from the rural town of Mt Barker and 35-kilometres from the port city Albany. Welcome to this private patch of rural paradise, which is home to prolific bird and wildlife, and is well-established and ready for horses and/or stock, or simply a rewarding life away from the hustle and bustle. Whether lazing inside or enjoying a sunny spot, two long side verandahs of the contemporary, country-style updated home, the bush and pastured setting and views are superb. There are quality electric fenced horse paddocks and a roundyard for all you horse lovers out there, and good water sources including a dam and two rainwater tanks to meet your needs. There is a handy garden shed and a big high clearance roller door and double carport farm shed and a house carport. Savour the aspect and sensible design of the delightful home. Take in the vistas from the smart open living and dining area and renovated galley-style kitchen featuring loads of storage, quality appliances and a breakfast bar. All three superbly presented bedrooms and the modern laundry near the fully-renovated bathroom have superb built-in storage. Quality fittings and fixtures enhance the overall appeal of this home. A fabulous choice for families to retirees either already living down this way and wanting more land, or city dwellers longing for a complete change of pace. For more detailed information or to arrange a private viewing please contact Linda Knight on 0409 126 554 or email linda.knight@raywhite.com