Positioned on the block to maximise elevation, aspect, natural light, and gentle breezes, it's not just the stunning panoramic vista that will take your breath away, it's the sheer scale of the build, the height, the quality, the space, and mix of glass and timber; everywhere you look there is lashings of "wow". Across four levels with a well-designed floorplan facilitating excellent separation of living and entertaining zones. The residence comprises five bedrooms, three bathrooms, premium kitchen with huge walk-in pantry, expansive terracing, separate living areas including sundrenched sitting room, undercover pool, games room with wet bar, and undercover parking for four vehicles, plus room for a boat or trailer. Covering a substantial size of the block, the gardens require minimal maintenance, mostly terraced, and there is a grassy space for children and pets to play. Being offered to the market for the first time since being built, this is a standout residence and is arguably one of Bushland Beach's finest, with a view that almost defies belief.
