Character Original Weatherboard Cottage

This enchanting 1950s weatherboard cottage, preserved in its original condition, beautifully combines vintage charm with modern possibilities. With three inviting bedrooms and a single bathroom, it's an ideal choice for families or those seeking a cozy retreat. Set on just over a quarter of an acre, the property boasts a spacious outdoor area highlighted by a charming cottage garden. The single-car garage adds practicality, while the lovingly tended garden offers a tranquil setting for outdoor relaxation. This home is a rare gem, offering classic elegance and plenty of room to create your own personal sanctuary.

- Two distinct living areas: one overlooking the front garden and the other with views of the backyard
- The kitchen is equipped with gas cooking, an electric oven, and ample cupboard space
- North-facing master bedroom with built-in robes
- Set back from the road for privacy and ample room for potential extensions
- Enjoy warmth during cooler months with a slow-combustion fireplace and a gas heater
- The north-facing front verandah exudes charm, perfect for your morning coffee
- A short walk or drive to Bowral's vibrant offerings, including cafes, boutique shops, restaurants, beauty salons, and Bowral Hospital
