Welcome to 79 Ferrier Drive Menai, which is a very tightly held location and well known for high end homes. This is an imposing full brick master built home that's never been offered for sale before. The emphasis is on size with wide open spaces, with a split level floorplan that offers many different living areas. It boasts a formal lounge and dining room, that leads to a massive central living area and casual dining with large kitchen and architectural high raked ceilings. Venture down to the next level and you have a rumpus room with wet bar that access's the yard. Back upstairs and you have four great size bedrooms, two have their own balcony and the master has an ensuite and huge built in robe. The garaging is a superb oversized double car along with a large separate workshop and never ending storage. Couple all of this to an extra side access to the yard which is perfect for a boat, trailer or van. There's covered entertaining off the living area that leads to a generous terraced backyard. Close to schools and transport this masterpiece home is a great opportunity to secure what may well be the perfect family residence.
