Modern Renovated home on the high side

Renovated inside and out by tasteful owners, sitting on the high side of a serene, friendly cul-de-sac, this home gives you the best of both worlds: it will service your family's every need, giving you nothing to do but move in and enjoy, and it provides potential for even more.

Externally, this great residence gives you an attractively established block with district views, and plenty of space to extend or add. Internally, the rooms are easy-flowing, well configured, uncomplicated and family-friendly, its sense of space and abundant light enhanced by high ceilings.

With amenities enough to make the busy family weekdays a breeze, it also offers possibilities for even more entertaining and living areas. While the visionary handyman hatches his plans for his new home in the garage/workshop, the kids and pets get to explore the spacious, shady expanses of a generous backyard. All this, and a location buyers are clamouring to call their own!
