With an address that offers it all, this well presented Art-Deco dream offers three bedrooms, perfect for any family entering the Preston precinct. A freshly renovated bathroom with 2 toilets and original high decorative ceilings, cornices and picture rails while enhancing all the character. Offering a sizeable living room and meals area, bathed in natural light and showcasing an ornate tiled fire place, the kitchen features a gas stove top and oven, dishwasher and generous breakfast bar. Three private bedrooms, two of which contain either a mirrored built in robe or a large fixed robe. Further features include freshly polished hardwood floors throughout, separate laundry facilities, split system aircon plus a 5 star ducted heating unit, spacious low maintenance backyard, lock up shed with rear workshop and sufficient off street parking, with secure gated entry. Ready to move in with the bonus of being on a peaceful suburban street and just off thriving Bell Street, this property is within walking distance to Plenty Road trams and parklands, plus easy access to High Street shops/cafes, the iconic Preston Market and Northland Shopping Centre.
