Elevated position - Sought after cul de sac

Proudly perched on the high side of the street on approximately 850m² of easy care land, the home has been well maintained and renovated to suit most buyers. The sundrenched floor plan includes open plan living areas with polished hardwood floors and a renovated kitchen that overlooks the rear gardens. Accommodation is four generous bedrooms serviced by a beautifully renovated bathroom and separate toilet. There is also an entertaining deck at the rear and a four car basement garage under, ideal for those searching for a workshop area.

The established, landscaped gardens are leafy and private and provide a pleasant backdrop while entertaining friends or watching the kids play safely.

Located close to parks, bushland and local shops. A short drive to Cooleman Court and easy access to major arterial roads leading to Woden, Canberra City, Tuggeranong and the Parliamentary triangle.

With all the hard work done, all the home needs is a brand new family - why not bring yours?
