This brick 3-bedroom property on the hill provides room for various family set ups. The second living area is perfect for a work from home space, kids retreat or simply a second living zone. The property has just had the original floorboards polished, has been painted throughout, has new carpets and updated kitchen appliances. There is undercover parking for one car and off-street parking for another. The large backyard is north facing and the rear sitting area has views of the You Yangs. Close to schools, public transport and amenities.
