SOLD BY DAVID LONIE

Undeniably sophisticated and built to last, this Parkes Lane family home is one of architectural merit. In an elevated position, this large abode takes full advantage of the cooling breezes and captures breath-taking views of the broad water and ocean.

Paradise has been created in the heart of Terranora with tropical gardens, sweeping vistas and resort-style living with heart and soul. This is more than a home, this is your very own oasis. Thoughtfully crafted, this well-equipped family home is cleverly built over multiple levels. It is just as easy uniting the family routine as it is entertaining in style here.

Set within a 1600m² estate of sweeping manicured lawns and landscaped gardens, this magnificent residence is undoubtedly one of Terranora's finest lifestyle properties. Designer finishes, intricate ceiling lines and an overall emphasis on quality and style are just some of the highlights of this impeccably presented property. This family sanctuary offers a seamless blend of classic elegance, modern-day convenience and family functionality all while capitalising on its premier setting.
