Expressions Of Interest

This sensationally elevated home in the heart of Banora Point provides a spacious open plan design and easterly lake views from almost every room in the house.

When you step into this property you are instantly amazed and impressed by the stunning outlook and the serenity that this home occupies. Featuring spacious, air-conditioned living areas with high ceilings, dining space and kitchen with breakfast bar and plenty of bench space, all of which take in these stunning lake views.

These living spaces open out to the covered, paved patio and sparkling salt water swimming pool, creating the perfect entertaining area for your guests.

The master bedroom is fit for a king and queen with luxurious bay windows framing the lake views, walk-in wardrobe and ceiling fan, serviced by the grand ensuite with separate spa bath, separate shower and great-sized vanity. The property contains another 3 bedrooms, all with convenient built-ins, serviced by the spacious main bathroom, also featuring a separate bath, toilet and shower.

Other features include a large separate laundry with access outside as well as a double car garage and plenty of off street parking for your guests. Situated closely to the recently refurbished Tweed City, as well as local shops, Coolangatta and the Gold Coast Airport.
