Spectacular entertainer amidst divine natural surrounds

Why you'll love it:

This secluded address achieves rare natural immersion featuring breath-taking views of Middle Harbour and Gadigal National Park. The visionary design by Architect Tom Vandenberg offers privacy, peace and tranquillity with an inclinator, internal lift access and a sublime wet-edge pool.

Key features:

- Pristine views never to be built on
- Upstairs living area of vast scale caters for special occasions
- Glass rising to a curved ceiling with ethereal lighting
- Cross ventilation and north aspect for passive solar gain
- Stainless kitchen benchtops, Miele appl. with a grill plate
- Select-grade blackbutt floors & full-height doors
- Bedroom level with heated limestone floors
- Master suite with WIR & tranquil Middle Harbour views
- Study with custom-made joinery creating a curved library
- Inclinator access to the street, lift to all levels of the home

Best suited for:

Buyers with a fondness for architectural excellence and a desire for profound privacy with stunning natural vistas.
