This original vintage-styled cottage Queenslander has all its beautiful character features, including high ceilings, VJ boarded timber walls, coloured glass windows & stunning polished pine floors throughout the house. The house has two great bedrooms, a bathroom and a car parking space. Tidy kitchen overlooking a decent-sized backyard and under house laundry with a tin shed. An easily maintained garden can be used as a great space for family gatherings or just for your enjoyment. This is a great choice for long-standing tenants who love the convenience of the location. Just a few steps away from excellent local cafes, restaurants, parks, public transport and more. For those families who have kids, this accommodation is within the catchment of the Holland Park Primary. For inspection times, please call H1 Real Estate on 0450 228 112.
