Expansive family home in a convenient yet idyllic parkland setting

Set on a prized north-to-rear parcel embraced by a stunning National Park outlook, this architect-designed home is all about lifestyle. Spanning three spacious levels, the contemporary interiors, generously sized bedrooms and flexible layout make it an attractive prospect for multi-generational families and those with growing needs. Move-in ready, highlights include a gourmet stone kitchen, an oversized home office/music room, as well as a downstairs rumpus that opens to a vast fenced yard with private access to The Great North Walk. From this commanding position, a short stroll leads to the train station, village shops and schools.

- ?Expansive home poised majestically amidst a lush bushland backdrop
- ?Inviting living space with stunning bush views and slow combustion fireplace
- ?Modern CaesarStone kitchen equipped with a 900mm oven and gas cooktop
- ?Breakfast bar, polyurethane soft-close cabinetry and an Asko dishwasher
- ?Upper-level master suite with its own district-view balcony and spa ensuite
- ?Huge office/gym or music room provides the option for a 5th bedroom
- ?Family rumpus with direct access to the fenced yard and child-friendly lawns
- ?Firepit area, low maintenance gardens, direct access to The Great North Walk
- ?Vaulted ceilings, hardwood floors, air conditioning and plantation shutters
- ?Two bathrooms plus powder room, laundry with storage and garden access
- ?Internal entry from the automatic double garage
- ?Easy 650m stroll to the station and just 500m to Mount Kuring-Gai Public School
- ?Footsteps to Aldi shopping village and well placed for Hornsby's retail precinct
