Charming Family Home with Character & Convenience

This warm and inviting family home is nestled in a fabulous location, offering convenient access to transport. The functional floor plan features three generously sized bedrooms period detailing throughout. Both the living area and one of the bedrooms feature an ornate fireplace for added charm. The bathroom includes an over-bath shower, and throughout the home, you'll find timber floorboards and high ceilings with picture rails, enhancing its character and charm.

A covered alfresco area in the private rear yard seamlessly connects to the kitchen and dining rooms, perfect for entertaining or quiet family meals. For added convenience, there is a carport for off-street parking, ensuring ease of access.

Located just a short stroll from Broadmeadow Railway Station and the Brunner Road bus stop, commuting is a breeze, with Newcastle CBD and beaches only a quick drive away. The nearby Adamstown and Hamilton shopping precincts offer retail therapy and dining options, delightful cafes and restaurants are within an easy 20-minute walk, making this home an ideal blend of comfort, convenience, and character.
