Start your country dream here on almost 11 beautiful acres that will guarantee your privacy, serenity & plenty room to enjoy all the things you love doing right here on your own hobby farm. There is plenty of pasture & cleared land to feed the animals, ride motorbikes & even a spring fed dam to fish or swim plus another dam complete with water lilies. The property also adjoins a beautiful flowing creek at the rear which provides the idyllic space for you to sit in complete silence listening to the flow of water & the abundance of wildlife that also call this place home. The comfortable 3 bedroom plus separate study home welcomes you & your family to a warm & inviting atmosphere where many happy memories can be created. The large kitchen will become the centre of entertaining friends & family plus the warm crackling wood fire in the lounge will keep you cozy & relaxed. The views from the covered alfresco area are what rural living is all about. Magical sunsets over perfect pastures whilst enjoying the visiting wildlife will make you realise there is more to life than the constant hustle & bustle. There is also plenty of shedding to cater for all your storage & tinkering needs. Right in the heart of horse heaven, there are many riding trails right at your doorstep too. Call us to inspect today & see for yourself the lifestyle that is on offer here – you will never regret making the move to the hills!
