A brilliant take on an European classic

Basking in due north views across Pittwater, this splendid residence is a home of exceptional quality and elegant proportions. Completed just this year, the traditional lines, exquisite finishes and light-drenched interiors speak to the old-world charm of a timeless Mediterranean villa. It's combined with a thoroughly modern take on the classics with a superb collection of fittings, sourced from around the globe. Think quiet luxury from top to bottom; the parquetry floors, custom-designed joinery and translucent earth tones of Venetian plasterwork create a sumptuous experience, while banks of French doors extend the interiors to sun-washed terraces, plunge pool and those iconic views.
