This magnificent eye catching house has been meticulously rebuilt over nearly 2 years and even comes with builders 6 year structural warranty - located on the eastern side of Bloomfield Street and on the doorstep of Oyster Point. This home is complete with high end finishes throughout and offers an ensuited master on both levels of the home with fitted cabinetry in the walk in wardrobes. The gourmet kitchen is superb with calcutta style stone bench tops, island bench, and soft closed cabinetry. This luxe area overlooks the oversized outdoor entertaining area, inground pool with stunning rock wall waterfall and a level 612 m2 block with a perfect north/east aspect which takes advantage of the morning sun and cool bay breezes. The automatic double garage is completely tiled and has a handy drive through garage to the rear yard and there is also gated side access on the opposite side of the home. Exquisite powder room on ground level and generous sized laundry. Whilst upstairs is a second climate controlled living room all the kids bedrooms which are split up by the luxury floor to ceiling tiled bathrooms complete with an elegant soaking tub and a 5 star main bedroom with an impressive ensuite, another walk in wardrobe with built in cabinetry and access out onto the full length front balcony. This home is simply gorgeous and with acres of parkland just metres away and access to Clevelands CBD by foot it's such a convenient position to call home. If you're looking for a home with nothing to spend but yet you want all the new features you see in a high end resort or hotel this home is better than brand new and will certainly impress the most fastidious buyers.
