

93 Point Street, Bulli, NSW 2516

House For Sale

Friday, 10 November 2023

93 Point Street, Bulli, NSW 2516

Bedrooms: 2

Bathrooms: 1

Parkings: 2

Area: 809 m2

Type: House

Kane Downie
0409969032

Chayse MacIver
0428083000

Price guide $1,000,000 - $1,100,000

Home to the one family for 2 generations, this home was built in the 1940's and sits on a large parcel of land. Located opposite the stunning sandstone Uniting church on the corner of Point Street and the Princes Highway, it faces north looking up to the wonderful Illawarra escarpment. Consisting of 2 bedrooms and room for an office, sitting room or guest accommodation, the floorplan offers flexibility. The stunning gardens have been an amazing private space and consist of many different species, both native and exotic.- Drive in off Point street and off street parking for at least 3 vehicles- A cup of tea amongst the gardens in the court yard is good for your soul- Stroll throughout the yard and enjoy the perfume of old fashioned roses and fresh Spring blooms- This is an ideal project opportunity for a builder or home handyman to renovate this once glorious house - The kitchen and dining area will be the location where many of the problems of the universe will be solved!- This property is located a short distance to Bulli Railway Station and all the delights of the town centre*This property adjoins properties that can be developed in one line*