Ray White Glen Innes are proud to present 96 Oliver Street | Glen Innes to the market. This quality-built brick and tile home offers seven bedrooms, a rare offering for homes in the area. 96 Oliver Street's elevated construction creates a grand street appeal, with the decorative front fencing accenting its presence. Recently the home has undergone a refresh with all new internal painting, new guttering, and new railings just to name a few. The home offers:

- Spacious eat in kitchen featuring modern kitchen cabinetry, walk in pantry and electric appliances throughout.
- Family sized bathroom with separate water closet for practical convenience.
- The lower bedrooms are quite versatile and could be used for a vast array of purposes such as a home theatre, library, study, or home gym.
- One of the bedrooms doubles as a self-contained unit featuring its own kitchenette and bathroom, ideal for guests.
- To maintain creature comforts the home offers the choice of both wood fire heating and reverse cycle air conditioning.
- For vehicle storage there is an attached two bay garage with electric roller doors for added convenience.
- 6.6kw solar system for energy efficiency.

The home is set on an easy to maintain 758m² block with the added security of colorbond and decorative fencing. Your additional storage needs are met with the backyard featuring a powered storage shed, perfect for those bulkier items. For the green thumb in the family there are numerous raised garden beds to utilize and grow fresh produce. Located in a desirable location, close to the Glen Innes Highschool.
