Exquisitely renovated to display sleek designer tones and stylish appointments, this sensational home captures glorious natural light and conveys a sophisticated open plan ambience from the moment you step inside. Designed for functionality, the home's entry foyer provides an easy flow of space, leading through to a streamlined lounge and dining room that's adorned with modern floorboards, stylish wall panelling and recessed speakers. A haven for the family who loves to cook, the renovated kitchen appreciates quality appointments including stone benchtops, white gloss cabinetry, an upright oven/cooktop plus a brilliant breakfast bench. Continuing the home's free-flowing ambience, stacker doors slide open to reveal a large alfresco deck, dotted with skylights and equipped with strip heating and a ceiling fan for all-weather enjoyment. A timber bar and bi-fold servery through to the kitchen add additional allure for entertainers, while an easy-care backyard is perfect for young children and pets. Running along the hallway, you'll find three brightly lit bedrooms, all fitted with new carpeting, ceiling fans and built-in robes, accompanied by a laundry, separate toilet and a strikingly modern bathroom featuring a twin stone vanity, heated towel rails and dual rainfall-effect shower. Special features include split system heating/air conditioning, solar panels, LED downlights, CCTV cameras, storage shed plus a triple carport with additional parking available in the driveway. Situated in an outstanding location, within walking distance to Brushy Creek Trail, Esther Park, bus services, Manchester Primary School, Mooroolbark College, Mooroolbark shops and Mooroolbark Train Station, with easy access to Chirnside Park Shopping Centre, Eastland Shopping Centre and Eastlink.
